FOREWORD

Although the time fast approaches when many of us will be saying good-bye to W.T.H.S. for the last time, the memories of events . . . dances, ball games, parties, classes, times of laughter, and of tears . . . which occurred here will live forever within our hearts. Of course, we will never forget the wonderful friends, teachers, and counselors who have come our way . . . they mean most of all.

We, the seniors of W.T.S.H., class of 1964, hope that the events and persons pictured herein will serve to provide the golden key to the memories held so dearly within the hearts of each individual student of this school. Keep smiling and forget your troubles, for these are the golden days of life when every little thing means so much. They will end!

May God bless and keep you always, especially for . . .
The Seniors.

" . . . and he salutes everyone whom he meets."

DEDICATED

In deepest appreciation, we, the seniors of 1964 lovingly dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Frances Donnahoe, whose many years of service in the English department have meant so much to each of us. Her untiring devotion and interest in the welfare of her students will forever be remembered by all who know her. Her guidance and counsel have helped all of us to round out our characters, raise our goals higher, and work harder to achieve those goals. She has been a "mother" to many; a friend to all.

This yearbook is only a small token of our love and appreciation for her, in return for the many ways in which she has served us.

Administration

Seniors:

Congratulations upon having reached a very important date in your life, graduation from high school. You have persevered when others have taken the easier road and quit school.

Do not think that high school graduation means that you can let up and take things easy. You will be called upon to assume more responsibility with each passing year and you should be capable of meeting the challenge. The main difference from this point is that you will be held personally responsible for your decisions and your actions.

There is no place for the immature, the shirker, or the "world owes me a living" type.

Practice self-discipline, control all of your appetites, and develop an attitude of good will toward all men. Every phase of American life needs men of faith, of good will, men who are willing to accept responsibility and work for the common good.
